Text:

Are you a good citizen?

I think I am a good citizen for a number of reasons. First of all, I often participate in community services. That is, to do a variety of activities that can benefit other people in my community. For example, in my neighborhood, my friends and I volunteer to collect litter and dispose of it in a garbage can. In addition, I usually like helping the homeless and the elderly. Also, I donate money to some local and national charities. Additionally, I donate blood to save other people's lives. Other activities I do to exercise my citizenship include voting in elections, protecting and taking care of the environment, and respecting the law. Moreover, as a responsible citizen, I try hard to conserve water and energy and advise my family members and friends to do so. In short, being a good citizen calls for performing several duties and responsibilities.
